GENERAL OVERVIEW

ROOPOKAR is a digital marketing agency and interactive studio based in Dhaka, Bangladesh. We work with brands to help them communicate and build relationship with their customers online. We do this through a blend of strong strategic thinking, creative design, cutting edge technology, social media and extensive insights into online consumer behavior.

As a creative studio we’ve been around since 2008 (which is a long time in internet years) but our experience as designers goes back a lot further. The professionals at ROOPOKAR possess that rare ability to understand, visualize and implement your ideas. We are equally competent at conceptualizing, advertising and selling your product by the use of digital technology. Whether a startup venture, small business, large corporation or in between, we can help you. If you need to have a website built, or want to gain more traffic to your existing one, we can customize a plan for you that is cost-effective and delivers tangible results.

We’ve created intuitive website solutions for businesses from across the Bangladesh in a range of sectors, adding value through creative ideas and practical approaches. We excel in creating measurable digital strategies delivered across a range of channels, including email, social media and mobile, all focused on converting visitors into customers.

THE NAME AND LOGO

ROOPOKAR is a Bengali word which means “who creates” or “An artist”. As we are a team devoted to create something new to uphold your brand we have named our company ROOPOKAR Creative Studio.

The logo of ROOPOKAR is a set of blocks. Actually they are building blocks which encourage interaction, imagination and creativity. And so we love playing and experimenting to innovate something new.

WHAT MAKES US DIFFERENT

We work openly and honestly with our clients and encourage involvement in your project. After all, we’re wanting you to meet your business objectives. We work with open standards so you’re not restricted to outdated or proprietary coding languages. We don’t impose our own ‘in-house’ software, preferring to select the best solutions for your business.

Although we spend many hours thinking and writing in code, you needn’t be worried about coming to us having never had a website. We will avoid confusing technical language and think in terms of delivering the best solution for your business.

SUPPORT WHEN YOU NEED IT

We recognise that the web runs 24/7 and office hours don’t always apply. We’re proud of our reputation for providing helpful and timely support - even out of hours. That’s vital for your business continuity, especially if you trade online or have an international audience.

We have dedicated support person. E-mail to support@roopokar.com. You can also submit a help request through our website www.roopokar.com
